

Recognizing & Understanding Emotions

Learning to identify feelings in ourselves and others

PART 1: The Emotions Wheel

Read each emotion word. Write one thing that might CAUSE that feeling:

Happy Something that makes me feel happy:	Sad Something that makes me feel sad:
Angry Something that makes me feel angry:	Scared Something that makes me feel scared:
Excited Something that makes me feel excited:	Frustrated Something that makes me feel frustrated:
Calm Something that helps me feel calm:	Embarrassed Something that makes me feel embarrassed:

PART 2: Feelings in Situations

Read each situation. Write how you THINK the person feels:

- A child drops their lunch tray and everyone looks at them.

They might feel:

- A child wins a prize at the school fair.

They might feel:

- A child's best friend moves to a different school.

They might feel:

- A child is asked a question in class and doesn't know the answer.

They might feel:

- A child's birthday party is cancelled because of rain.

They might feel:

PART 3: What Helps Me When I Feel...

...angry

Things that help me:

...anxious / scared

Things that help me:

...sad

Things that help me: